*In New England stands a college
Near blue Quincy Bay,
E.N.C. our Alma Mater
Glorious for aye.
Laud her merits, sing her praises
Let our song ring free.
Hail to thee, our Alma Mater
Hail, O E.N.C.*

*Graceful branches lifted heaven ward,
Suncrowned 'fore our view,
Stand the elms upon our campus,
Reaching to the blue.
Shady walks beneath the foliage,
Flow'ring beauty rare;
Blessed by nature, how we love thee,
Alma Mater fair.*

*Clear her vision, high her purpose,
Lo, she stands serene;
And her faith is sure, undaunted,
Eastern Nazarene.
We will prove our strong devotion,
Loyal we will be;
True to God and Alma Mater,
True to E.N.C.*

-E.S. Mann and William Summerscales

Our existence is made up of relationships, which we have the choice to take and to make our own; experiences we can take and share. Through giving and receiving of ourselves we learn and grow in an never ending exchange. This we call friendship.

-MKS-

The dedication of the Nautilus has always been based on three criteria:

Dedication to the college and the people of the college.

Involvement in the community, and

Love, demonstrated even when the rewards are seemingly not great.

The 1984 edition of the Nautilus is dedicated to one who for the past 35 years has exemplified each of these criterion. To one who shows his dedication to Eastern Nazarene College and to her goals as established by the founding fathers. To one who preserved and directed the student's interests, through times of confusion and opposition. To one who acts as a leader among his peers and provided a model in the church as well as in the community. To one whose continual self-sacrifice and giving merits respect from all who know him.

President

It was my privilege to "grow up" in our family home across from what is now ENC's athletic field. I have watched and participated in the growth of ENC's campus from the five wood buildings to the fine facilities we now enjoy. I remember when wondered whether we'd ever reach an enrollment of 300 students and little dreamed that we'd ever have three times that many!

Yes, I remember much of ENC's past! But we live in a changing world. Things at ENC have changed; change will continue as the years roll on. But there is something that has not changed, and that, I pray may ever remain constant. ENC is dedicated to fulfilling a God-given PURPOSE. And, because of this PURPOSE, ENC has a SPIRIT that is real and infectious.

It is the purpose of the Eastern Nazarene College to:

*recognize material values yet help our students to see such the means - not the ultimate aim of life. We seek to point each student toward a Christian commitment, value structure and lifestyle that can give purpose and quality to life itself.

*offer through our "Main Currents Sequence" and "Core Curriculum" a breadth of knowledge that, in an increasingly specialized world will give our graduates a basis for understanding and meeting life's perplexing challenges.

*inspire each alumnus to find a place of meaningful service God and their fellowmen. We reaffirm our catalog statement.

"As a Christian institution in society, the college desires that its faculty, students and graduates possess a dynamic social conscience and that through personal contributions to society they express God's love for man, man's love for God and his fellowman, responsible freedom and human worth."

As the 1984 NAUTILUS honors this year's graduating class and seeks to reflect the SPIRIT that makes this college worthwhile, I pray that its pictures and editorial comments may cause us all to rededicate ourselves to the purposes of this holiness college and seek to spread her spirit far and wide. In the measure that we do, ENC's great PURPOSE shall be fulfilled!

WILLIAM A. TAYLOR

In Memoriam

During the past year, the Church of the Nazarene and Eastern Nazarene College lost a dedicated preacher and a friend with the passing of Dr. William A. Taylor. He was a preacher of holiness whose loving example motivated others to serve Christ and the Church. The staff of the Nautilus would like to dedicate this page to the memory of Reverend Taylor. The most appropriate way to pay tribute to such a man is through the following passage which was read when he received the honorary degree of Doctor of Divinity in May of 1982.

"Never wavering, William Taylor followed God's call to the ministry by establishing the Quincy Bethel Church of the Nazarene during student years at Eastern Nazarene College and continuing there until the congregation became fully established. His other pastorates have included strong churches in Melrose, Massachusetts and Manchester, Connecticut.

In 1975, he was elected Superintendent of the New England District of the Church of the Nazarene, a position not sought, but thrust upon him by the vote of the people. For seven years he has supervised 64 churches in a five-state area which, under God, have experienced remarkable growth.

Ever concerned for the pursuit of knowledge that would enable him better to serve Christ and the church, Reverend Taylor holds an A. B. degree in Biblical Literature and a Th. B. degree in Christian Theology from Eastern Nazarene College. He has pursued further studies at Boston University. For nine years, while pastoring Bethel Church, he was Instructor of Bible and Theology in the Department of Practical Arts and Letters of Eastern Nazarene College. He has served his Alma Mater as a member of the Board of Trustees for a decade, and for a period of time between elected presidents, was asked to serve there as Interim President.

We acknowledge with appreciation his service to Christ and the Church in a variety of responsibilities. Despite administrative duties well fulfilled, Reverend William A. Taylor remains at heart a pastor, a preacher and an evangelist. In following Christ's call he has served his church and this college with distinction."

Enthusiasm and Spirit Synonymous for 83-84 Squad

The 1983-1984 co-ed cheerleading squad consisting of Troy Godsey, Steve Shaw, Matt Pease, LaWonne Price (co-captain), Charlene Belle (co-captain), Murray Davis, Susan Svenson, Carrie Falke, Deb Fetterhoff, Barb Kierstead, Sharon Randall and advisor, Cathy Woodbridge. This team was dedicated, hardworking, and yet flexible to support varsity teams, no matter the score or their records, to do their ultimate best. The cheerleaders ended with the annual King's Tournament where they were able to enjoy the fellowship of other cheerleaders from other Christian colleges. As described by cheerleader Barb Kierstead, "Cheerleading at ENC left me with good memories and lasting friendships that will be cherished in my heart forever."

Positive and Productive Describe Soccer Season . . .

The varsity soccer team ended their season with a record of six wins, nine losses and one tie. This year had some outstanding seasons for some of the upperclassmen. The younger players gained valuable experience which will create a solid nucleus for next season.

The 1983 Women's Tennis team saw the return of five veterans and the addition of six new players. These new players gave the team not only enthusiasm, but the much needed depth which allowed them to meet the match requirements. Also, a healthy competition was created among the athletes for the positions. Enthusiasm was also created by the purchase of new uniforms for the team. This enthusiasm sparked improvement in the season record and individual skills. The team finished the year with an improved record of 2 wins and 8 losses.

Strong Determination Yields Victory For Volleyball . . .

The 1983 Women's Volleyball team finished one of the most successful seasons of its twelve-year history. This team was selected to the Class A Competition of the Massachusetts State Tournament for the seventh straight year. They also won NAIA District and Regional Championship which allowed them to participate in the NAIA Nationals.

The Lady Crusaders went to South Carolina and on their very first match faced the home team, Winthrop College which they lost. The ladies also faced the three-time winner, Hawaii and a team from Milwaukee, Wisconsin and lost both of these matches; however, these ladies made a gallant effort. The strong determination of these ladies allowed them to participate in such a prestigious event as the National Tournament.

A Competitive Spirit Highlights ENC Varsity Baseball . . .

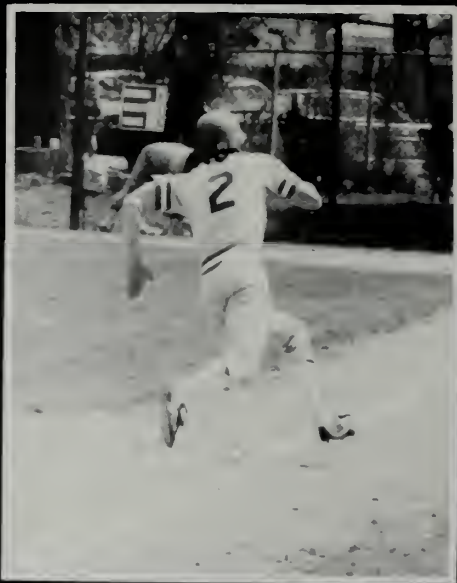

The 1983-1984 baseball season showed the competitive spirit of a well balanced team despite only having one senior, Gary Weslow, and two returning juniors, Jim Corbin and Jeff Jackson. The lack of experience did not hamper the teams' ability to bat because for the second consecutive year the batting average was over .300.

The highlight of the season was their annual spring trip to Boca Raton, Florida. While in Florida, they gained valuable experience by playing other Christian colleges as well as learning to play as a team. Despite an unfavorable record of 7 wins and 8 losses, the team played competitively every game and showed a great deal of promise for future seasons.

Injuries Dash Hopes For A Successful Softball Season . . .

The Women's Varsity Softball Team had an energetic beginning with their trip to South Carolina where they competed against some of the top collegiate softball teams in the country. The 1984 softball team had the potential for a greatly improved season until injuries benched both catchers. The team was never able to reorganize either offensively or defensively for the rest of the season. However, the ladies were very dedicated to the game of softball and their alma mater.

"Close" Summarizes Men's Tennis Team . . .

The 1984 Men's Varsity Tennis Team had great potential for an outstanding season but luck was just not with the team this year. The team had a record of two wins, and seven losses but the record does not indicate the true talent of the team, The team was always in the competition at every match and lost three matches by two points and two matches by one point.

Kings . . .

King's Tournament is not a weekend limited to just intense competition between Christian Colleges but it is a time that unites ENC and takes months of preparation not only for the athletes and other participants but for the spectators. This year was marked by various activities to promote the highest level of spirit and enthusiasm that the school has ever had.

The spirit challenge was introduced a month before the actual tournament and students were reminded daily by the "ripping of the calendar" at the evening meal but also spirit days that allowed the individual to express his creativity. Many students participated in the pre-tournament activities such as Bathrobe Night, Greaser Day, Red and White Day and Mix 'N' Match Night which had the boost that gave students much spirit and anticipation for the tournament.

On February 23rd, the annual King's College Tournament began at Briarcliff Manor, New York. That night, the men's basketball team lost a heartbreaker to the number 2 team, Nyack, by three points. This seemed to set the tempo for the rest of the tourney. The most intense competition was the Barbershop Quartet competition in which ENC gained their only first place victory. Craig Graham, Duane Hespell, Jeff Frame and Ron Schermerhorn teamed up to put on a startling performance that highlighted the tournament.

In other competition, the men's basketball team secured a fifth place finish, while the Lady Crusaders finished second overall in volleyball. Wendell Skidgell tied for third place in chess; and third and fourth place were taken in men's and women's pin-pong, respectively. Our runners teamed up for a fifth place finish. Meanwhile, our bowling team and mixed ping-pong did their best, but fell short to the tough competition and finished last.

Overall, ENC finished fourth in the tournament, but first once again with our devoted crowd. The fans who faithfully made the weekend trip to support our teams enhanced the competition with their excitement.

Those who attended showed great enthusiasm and old-fashioned school spirit.

Senior Class Officers

The Class of 1984 charges you, the underclassmen of ENC, with the following responsibilities:

- ... to provide leadership and guidance in all areas of campus life
- ... to uphold the standards of the college and promote unity among faculty, staff, administration, and students
- ... to get involved and get others involved in the activities of both the school and the church in hopes of rekindling the spirit of ENC
- ... to reach out to the community and those around you to try and make them a part of the ENC family
- ... and finally, to support your school and live as the Lord would have you to live, setting a Christ-like example for others to follow.

We, the Class of 1984, hope and pray you can fulfill these responsibilities to make your years at ENC as rewarding and memorable as ours.

How can a face as innocent as this be a Weslow?

Who's Who Among Students In American Universities And Colleges

TWENTY-ONE SENIORS from Eastern Nazarene College have been selected to have their names appear in the 1984 edition of WHO'S WHO AMONG STUDENTS IN AMERICAN UNIVERSITIES AND COLLEGES. This book is designed to acknowledge the accomplishments of outstanding students by the faculty and administration of their respective college. This honor has been given to students on campuses all over the United States for the past 40 years. These seniors join the ranks of such noted alumni as Ruth Cameron ('50), Richard Shubert ('58), Lowell Hall ('59), James Stark ('63), Wayne Dunlop ('65), and John Nielson ('65). This year, as in past years, these students were selected upon their outstanding scholastic ability, participation and leadership in extra curricular activities, citizenship, and service to ENC. Recognizing that selection to such a prestigious book is truly a privilege, selection also challenges these students to pursue their full potential and to broaden their capabilities. It is our wish that these students will continue to use their talents and gifts in serving God and society. The 1984 NAUTILUS would like to honor these students and their achievements in the following four pages.

Student Council 1983-1984

Leading the '83-'84 Student Council has offered many rewarding experiences. Serving the Student Body has allowed many students like myself to give creative input for the future of Eastern Nazarene College and to work through challenges that are faced along the way.

This year, I was honored to serve as Student Council President with seven of the most dedicated and talented leaders that comprised the Executive Council and fourteen other spirited student leaders on the General Council. Dr. Henry "Hank" Spaulding worked closely with us as Student Council Advisor, lending wise and knowledgeable insight into many situations.

Like any job, I quickly realized how much there was to do and learn and how little time there was to accomplish the goals that I had initially laid out. I gained an awareness of how dependent Student Council was on student support. Keeping in harmony with the needs of the students and good management looked like the key to a successful year. I asked the council to suggest what they thought the top priorities for the coming year should be. There were three major concerns: Unity, Community and Transportation.

Looking back, I now realize how important it was to be "unified in spirit and purpose." The other priorities we had set came into "perspective" and were achieved only after we became sensitive to the needs around us. Keeping that 'balance' was important and still will be so later in our lives. I pray we all attain that sense of balance.

Sincerely,

Steve Fetter

Student Council President

Orientation Picnic

After Mom and Dad have said their last good-byes and that strange person that is sharing the room finishes settling in, it is time to go out and meet all the other freshmen at a picnic where everyone experiences the first college meal together. This is a great time to meet new friends and relax before the frenzy of college begins.

Breakout

On a warm Tuesday evening before freshmen registration, this year's sophomore class officially "Broke-Out." Suspicious freshmen were herded into the gym, shoes removed upon entry, for a series of games and trials that involved sitting on ice blocks, peeling potatoes, and an excessively bumpy mattress ride.

Here the (water) machine gun equirt upperclassmen taught the official freshmen class song and led the freshmen girls in an attack that necessitated pulling apart a human gridwork of freshmen guys. It was thus proven that intensive physical contact is a really good way to get to know one another.

A highlight of the evening was witnessing Larry Foster's achievement in stuffing twenty marshmallows into his mouth while barely retaining the ability to say "Chubby Bunnies." This was a new record. When the festivities concluded, all were given their beanies to guard and treasure for the ensuing week. Finally, they were released to track down their shoes which were strewn about the student center. There were no casualties.

Freshmen Sophomore Banquet

It is the last night of the freshmen's first week of college and they have had many experiences. They have been crowded into a hot gym and had to sing a most absurd song at dinner, but they have survived and the sophomores want to show them that they are welcomed to the ENC family. The freshmen were treated as Kings and Queens and entertained by the sophomores

Outing At King Philip*

The fall all-school outing sponsored by student council was held at King Philip in Wrentham, Ma. The gorgeous day allowed heated class competitions to occur in which fun was had by all. Everyone enjoyed the beach and the lake where one of the featured highlights was a canoe race between the classes. The class competition consisted of egg toss, pass the banana and of course, the famous pyramid building. Everyone had an excellent time together in great Christian fellowship. What a great way to begin the school year.

Annie

Annie was the 1983 Homecoming musical at Eastern Nazarene College. The already exciting weekend was highlighted by this production with nine performances in five days, everyone was given an opportunity to catch the freshness of this musical.

One distinct aspect of Annie was its idealistic plot concerning a poor orphan girl suddenly becoming rich in a way that is a tribute to the "American Dream".

The play was spiced with a cast of memorable characters. Although he hid his hair over it, Jeff Frame brought Daddy Warbucks to life in a way that became very real. Cathy Given, a recent alumnus, eloquently played his secretary, Grace. Becky Herzberg superbly played the role of Annie. The orphanage was run by the villainous Miss Hannigan, comically portrayed by Judy Wetmore. Mike Kreitman triumphed in the role of her criminal brother, Rooster, while Diane Libano won the audience as his sleazy girlfriend, Lil.

Annie is musical theater that puts a song in your heart and promise in your mind: "The sun'll come out tomorrow..."

Heritage Day

On October 4, 1983 Eastern Nazarene College and Wollaston Church of the Nazarene celebrated the Seventy-Fifth year in the Heritage of the Church of the Nazarene.

Following the music of the Eastern Nazarene College Concert Band, the greeting of President Nease and the singing of the A Cappella Choir, Dr. V.H. Lewis, General Superintendent of the Church of the Nazarene, gave the traditional Heritage Day address, which featured reflections upon the history of the Church of the Nazarene.

The ceremony was closed with the singing of the Alma Mater.

Glad

On September 22, 1983, the Christian rock group, Glad was in concert at the Wollaston Church of the Nazarene. The group brought a special message through their music and personal testimonies. Their music generated excitement and energy about the good news of God. This concert was special because the glory of God was lifted high.

Revivals

Fall Revival With Dr. Stephen Manley

November 8-13, 1983, brought a time of commitment reaffirmation to the ENC community through the Fall Revival Services featuring Stephen Manley. Dr. Manley sincere messages made his listeners take a deep look into themselves and question who is really the authority in my life?

Mini-Revival With Dr. William Griffin

Eastern Nazarene College's Mini-Revival sponsored by student council was quite memorable event because Dr. William Griffin was the featured speaker and special music by Patty Schubert.

Dr. Griffin's messages were full of excitement and energy which kept the audience at full attention and he lifted many spiritual attitudes and helped change atmosphere on the campus when many students are facing periods of stress and loneliness.

Bridge And Found Free

These contemporary Christian groups styles differ greatly but they have the same purpose and message and it is about Jesus and his greatness. Each group blesses the individual that appreciates the style of music of his own personal taste. These groups provide a spiritual lift and an opportunity to fellowship with other Christians.

Messiah

As Christmas approaches each year so does the annual performance of the Messiah under the direction of Professor Greg Larkin. The Choral Union and Orchestra presented the 49th Performance of the Messiah on December 2-3, 1984 at the Wollaston Church of the Nazarene.

Soloists this year were alumnus Ralph Marple, singing bass; Music Department Head Robert Howard, tenor; New England Conservatory graduate Sara Wyse-Wenger, alto; and ENC students, Lavinia Cox and Kimberley Blaney, soprano.

Registration

A dreadful task that faces each student twice a year is . . . registration. This Spring brought the use of the famous computer, in hopes of making this painful task shorter and less complicated. However; the lines were still long and of course, the long line, eternal wait to see the bursar may never end but this year the wait was not so intolerable. The sense of accomplishment still occurs when that plastic card is in the hand and the individual can still say "I survived registration."

Open House

It's 7:15 on a Sunday evening and in Spange, Willy and Munro where girls are popping corn and straightening their rooms. Meanwhile, in Memorial and Shields, guys are stirring from their usual Sunday night routine and preparing to leave their rooms at the prospect of free food and a comfortable place to gather in mixed company. What is this phenomenon that makes or rather transforms the quiet docile dorm to a place filled with the aura of excitement? A party? A rule-breaking protest? Dorm raid? No. It's the famous E.N.C. tradition of Open House.

Twice a month dorms are invaded by members of the opposite sex. Friends get together to watch TV, munch-out and discuss the weekend's events. At the same time, couples can enjoy spending a quiet time together without enduring public "Parlor games". Open Houses are a special time of fellowship much different than the typical day.

Donkey Basketball

A new activity, sponsored by student council, gave the student body a chance to see their administrators, faculty alumni and student council at their best on the backs of donkeys. It may have been a very humbling experience for some participants but it was a great time of Christian fellowship for everyone.

Spring Revival

The 1984 Spring Revival featured Dr. Stephen Nease as the evangelist for the revival, he long with the song evangelists, Sam and Pam Van Horn had the altar lined with seekers, believers and counselors.

Throughout the week, Dr. Nease spoke of "man's freedom of choice", living a life with Christ showing through, and the alternatives open to one who chooses to reject Christ. We were all reminded that Revival must first start within our hearts and once that is accomplished, great things are possible.

Dr. Nease did exactly that; from March 13 until March 17, he revived the flame in many a heart on the Eastern Nazarene campus.

Chapels

Festival of Life

During one weekend in the month of March ENC becomes invaded by 1200 high school students all energetic, nervous and full of spirit to cheer their district to the top and bring the trophy home. Students name this weekend as Festival of Strife which tests the patience to the core but we must always remember that many of us dignified adults were once a rowdy teenager enjoying a weekend away from home and our parents.

Congratulations must go to the Admissions Department for trying to make this weekend as painless as possible. This weekend allows prospective students to express their talents and an opportunity to grasp a taste of what college is like. These students compete in various areas such as Christian Communication, all sports and Bible Quizzing and many scholarships are awarded at this time. The top district this year was Philadelphia with the New England District a close second.

Community Week

In an effort to make the bond and communication even stronger between Eastern Nazarene College and the surrounding communities, Community Week was sponsored by the administration which allowed anyone from the community to come and visit the campus and see what ENC is really like. Special events were sponsored by various campus organizations and Chapel Services featured community leaders who spoke about the mission of ENC and its' service to the community. The following men delivered messages at Chapel services: Dr. Clayton Johnson, President of Quincy Junior College; State Senator Paul Harrold and Rev Dr. Roger Kvaum, Pastor of the First Presbyterian Church in Quincy. One of the highlights of the week was the presentation of a check to President Nease in the memory of Dr. Charles Djerf, a long-time physician of the college, to the scholarship fund. We realize the importance of maintaining a good relationship between the community and the school.

All-School Outing

The last formal all school event was the Spring all School Outing at Rocky Point Amusement Park. At first, the outing may not have occurred because mother nature canceled the outing the first time and the school year was coming to a close rapidly but luckily the event occurred and everyone enjoyed themselves.
